NEW METHODIST CHURCH.

Ground Broken on Last Saturday.—Addresses by the Different Pastors of the Town. —An Account of the Exercises.

In accordance with a notice previously given, a large number of people assembled at the corner of Third and Market Streets last Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, for the purpose of breaking ground for the new Methodist church which is to be erected at that location. Not only were the members of the church out in full force, but the crowd was augmented by representatives from the different denominations, as well as their pastors, thus showing a fraternal spirit, and the interest they had in the enterprise. The exercises were commenced by singing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," after which, Rev. Conner led in prayer in which he invoked the Divine blessing not only upon the work in which they were engaged, but upon all the congregations of the town. In the few remarks which he made, he said among other things, "that we are met here to day to break ground for a new church, and whilst it is to be called the Methodist Episcopal Church, we are glad to, and do recognize all denominations The fact of these different minister being present on this occasions is an evidence of the good feeling that exists among the different denominations." He then introduced Rev. G. E. Weeks pastor of the Baptist church. He said, "that the fact of so many people being present proved that other people in the town, beside the members of this particular church, are interested in this enterprise. We are glad when a substantial building is erected in our town, and much more so, in this building, as we recognize the fact that it is to be the house of God, and is being built for the advancement of His kingdom. I am glad to be present, and wish you abundant success from the start to the finish. When I think of the souls who will find Christ in this new edifice, and the yet unborn generations who will be here taught to love God, I can do nothing else than wish you success in your undertaking, and pray that God will abundantly bless you. I am glad to be here with you on this occasion, and will be pleased to be with you at its dedication, and I bring you the congratulations and greetings of my congregation.

Rev. C. H. Brandt of the Reform-Church, said, in substance," I can form some idea of the determination it took to start this enterprise. There is always in movements of this kind, a great deal of doubts and misgivings. Some questioning the feasibility and possibility of doing the work. You certainly deserve the congratulations of the entire community. Your church in the past has been doing a noble work in this place, as it has done in other Towns. This building will be an honor to the town, and one of which we can all feel proud, and the community is to be congratulated upon its erection. It will increase the value of other property and will become a center attracting people toward doing good. This is to be a house of God, and its erection will be an incentive for harder work on the part of the other churches. The fact that it will undoubtedly be the finest in the town, should not make others envious, but they should rejoice in it. I bring to you the congratulations of my congregation, and hope that it may be a place where God will be proclaimed and many led to Christ."

Rev. Johnson, of A. M E. Church, said "that I too, am glad to be here, and am glad I am a Methodist. The erection of every church makes a town better. I am glad I am a Methodist for two reasons. First, because, it was the first church to extend a helping hand to the colored race, and second, on account of the great work it is doing among that class of people. I wish you God's speed in the noble work in which you are engaged." After singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus name," Rev. George W. Currin, of the United Evangelical Church, upon being introduced said, "you have gotten too big for your church, but I hope the church you propose erecting will never be too large for the congregation. Representing the United Evangelical church of this place I bring you greetings from my congregations and hope that your labors may be crowned with success.

Rev. P. A. Heilman of the Lutheran Church, among other things said, "that there is an old adage which says "well begun, half done," consequently you are half way through with your labors. We are here to wish you well, We have pride in you, inasmuch as you belong to the town. A town is always measured by its public buildings and is the first thing that attracts the attention of strangers. I am glad for the sake of christianity, that this building is being erected, and hope you will rear such a structure as will make you all rejoice. You have commenced this afternoon at the bottom, which is the right place to begin. Hope that while you are breaking ground, you will also break out in larger influence for good. Your pastor is characterized for the spiritual influence he sheds over you, and I hope that it may extend to the members of all the congregations in the town. I rejoice to see the broad spirit of christianity displayed in this place, and hope it may broaden and deepen and bind us all together in one common brotherhood. You have my sincere wishes that special success may crown your efforts. A collection netting a snug sum was then taken, after which the horses were hitched to a plow and the first ground was broken. C. C. Peacock Esq. who lays claims to being something of a farmer desired to have the reputation of having been the first to break the ground for the new edifice, but it was soon apparent, that whilst he was a good business man, and, thoroughly understood the business in which he was engaged, he knew nothing about ploughing. Rev. Conner then took hold of the handles and convinced the assembly that this was not the first time he had held a plough. Geo. W. Corell, who is a farmer, then took hold and showed them how it should be done. A wagon being on the ground it was soon filled with earth each one present throwing into it a shovelful. The work of of excavation was continued Monday by William Ferguson who has the contract, and the foundation walls will be immediately erected.

Success to the enterprise.

BIOYCLE SHOP BURNED.

Monday evening about five o'clock the town was aroused by hearing the cry of "Fire!" "Fire!" Investigation proved that the bicycle repair shop of W. H. Crossley was in flames. The Friendship and Wynona fire companies promptly responded to the alarm, but owing to the fact that the wrenches were being used in flushing the sewers, considerable time elapsed before they had a stream of water on the building. Had they been able to obtain water immediately upon their arrival, in all probability the building and contents would have been saved, as it was, the building is practically destroyed, together with the tools, stock and five bicycles. The fire was caused by the explosion of the brazing furnace which Mr. Crossley was using, and in less time almost than it takes to write it, the gasoline was scattered in all directions and the building enveloped in flames. It was owned by Moyer Bros., upon which there was no insurance, but the loss of Mr. Crossley is covered by insurance. As it was, it resulted very fortunately, as had the fire broken out earlier in the day, when the wind was blowing a gale, it undoubtedly would have caused a great destruction of property.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Christian A. Earnest was stricken with paralysis at his home on East Street, Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock, and immediately lapsed into an unconscious condition in which he remained until he died Wednesday morning about four o'clock. He was a son of Daniel Earnest, and was born near Danville, Montour County, March 1840. In 1865, October 26, he married Miss Elsie J. Robbins, who with three daughters Bessie, Mary and Sarah, who is engaged in teaching at West Chester, survive him The larger portion of his life was spent in farming, living on his fathers farm for many years, and subsequently moving to one in the same County between Danville and Washingtonville, where he continued to reside until he moved to this place about three years ago. Mr. Earnest was a veteran of the late war having served in the 9th Cavalry of the Pennsylvania Volunteers, His death was unusually sad, as up to the time he was stricken with paralysis he was in his usual good health, and his family had no indication that he was to be taken from them so suddenly and unexpectedly. He was a consistant member of the United Evangelical Church, and contributed largely of his means and time towards its prosperity. The funeral services will be held at his late residence to-day, (Friday) at 12 o'clock noon, and the interment will be in the cemetery at New Columbus.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Large Attendance. The Largest Ever in the History of the County.--Every Teacher in the County, Excepting Two Enrolled on the First Day.

Monday morning dawned clear and bright, and at an early hour the streets by the unusual number of handsome, well dressed and intelligent looking ladies and gentlemen upon them gave evidence that something of an unusual character had, or was about to occur. It was the time for the convening of the teachers of Columbia County in Institute. The call of the roll revealed the astonishing fact that 241 out of a possible 243 teachers were present. This is unprecedented, and something which has never before occured in the history of the Institute. It proves in an unmistakeable manner the interest the teachers of this County have not only in the Institute, but in their profession as well. After a few remarks by County Superintendent Johnston the convention was opened with scripture reading and prayer by Rev. P. A. Heilman of the Lutheran Church of this place. The address of welcome was delivered by Prof. William Noetling of the Normal School, than whom, there is no instructor in the State who is better known or more loved and respected than he. His address was replete with good advice and sound doctrine.

He spoke of the insufficient remuneration which, for the past ten years, the instructors of our young have been receiving. He hoped that a brighter era was now about to dawn in the life and experience of the teacher, and invited the teachers to observe the work of the "big school on the hill."

This was replied to in an able manner by Prof. E. K. Richardson of Berwick. His address abounded in earnest pleas for the financial betterment of the teacher's profession.

Prof. E. E. Straub, of Conyngham, spoke of the principal duty of the teacher as being the guiding pilot in the wholesome, physical, mental and moral development of our boys and girls.

The Committee on Organization then offered their report nominating the following officers who were unanimously elected; Secretary, A. U. Lesher, Berwick; Treasurer, A. F. Terwilliger, Centre.

3:00 p. m. Dr. Arnold Thompkins of Chicago then addressed the teachers on "Psychology." The Dr. is a gentleman of pleasing appearance and courteous manner who possesses the faculty of presenting this usually dry subject in a clear and interesting manner which secures at once the attention of the audience.

3:45 p. m. Miss Margaret McClosky of the Lock Haven Normal School then addressed the Institute on the subject of "Language." Our first consideration in teaching this subject is to cultivate that observation which will enable the pupil to write intelligently upon any subject presented for composition. The pupil should be taught to carefully observe objects, animals and plants. The things which interest the pupils most should be thought of and observed first. As Burrows says:

"I would let the children see
What a flower means to me."

Teach the children to love and to observe the beauties of nature with which they are surrounded. Teach your pupils that nature teaches the lesson of mutual dependence and mutal helpfulness. Teach the child its relation to and dependence upon its God.

After a few remarks by Superintendent Johnston and the singing of the Vesper hymn the Institute adjourned at 4.45 P. M.

The exercises in the evening were opened by Elwell's orchestra rendering in a fine manner one of their fine selections, and after a solo by Prof. Sprenkel, Supt. Johnston introduced the lecturer of the evening Dr. James Hedly of Cleveland, Ohio, who took for his subject "What is man Worth."

The lecture was highly appreciated by a large and intelligent audience. From the beginning to the end it abounded in illustrations of the main point of his discourse, i. e. that the value of a man should be measured not by physical ingredients, but by his mental, moral and spiritual character.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 22.

The second day of the Teachers' Institute dawned bright and fair and the members were prompt in their attendance. The Institute was opened by singing No. 65 in "Ideal Songs."

The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Conner, of the Methodist church, who read a portion of the twenty-second chapter of Matthew and offered an eloquent prayer invoking Divine aid for the teachers in their laborious and nerve trying duties of the school room.

9:15. Miss Margaret McClosky then continued her talks on Language she said among other things, "Read something every day that taxes your mind to the utmost." There are several classes of readers. Some are merely literary gamblers, some desire to read all of the latest fiction. We should resolve to read only the best literature. Don't try to read everything; read for pleasure but read solid matter as well. Read with the aid of a notebook and pencil.

Prof. Sprenkle then conducted a ten minutes singing exercise.

After an address by Dr. Arnold Tomkins on Teaching Process, illustrated in teaching language, which was to the point, and contained a great deal of valuable information, the institute took a recess for fifteen minutes. Supt. Johnston anounced the following appointment of teachers who are to take charge of the local institute work in their several districts.

After these announcements were made Prof. Noetling addressed the institute on the subject "Some points on Teaching." He said that reference had been made by several of the speakers to some things in his address of welcome, among them that of teacher's salaries. Good teachers can neither be too highly appreciated nor compensated; but good salaries will not come of themselves, they must be worked for. An educational revival should be started at this Institute, carried by the teachers into every district in the county, and continued the whole year. Teachers must be alive to their calling, in this way they can make their value felt. He said that he had seen a district educationally almost dead, thoroughly revived in one school term by an earnest, enthusiastic teacher. Teaching is not so easy a thing as some people believe it to be. There is no other profession whose duties demand more thought, a keener insight into the springs of human activity, a purer life, and a higher degree of ability to lead and to influence the young to form high ideas of life and character. An institute is not a place at which lessons are assigned and recited or ready-made outlines furnished, but where points are obtained which every teacher must develop in his own, natural way. No successful teacher can be an imitator. There are method teachers. These are no better than machines. Instead of adopting their instruction to the children's needs, they try to adopt the children to their instruction—their machine. There is but one general road to success, and that is to grade the road so that the children can travel it alone with pleasure. To do this intelligently, requires as a preparation, a careful study of the children, their natures and aptitudes. Child study has of late came into prominence, and must, in the preparation of teachers, take the place of text-book psychology, which nobody follows. Much of the instruction given by untrained or half-trained teachers is like trying to pour water with a large tub into a small, narrow necked bottle, more is poured "onto and over than into." Without attention instruction is wasted. Before instruction can begin, the minds of the pupils must be prepared for it, that is, nothing must be on their minds but the subject of instruction. Sowing the best of seeds upon rocks or among weeds, will not produce good crops, but failures instead. Do we, as teachers, ever think that the minds of our pupils, like soil, must be prepared and in a suitable condition to receive the seed of instruction? All new knowledge must grow out of the old that is in the pupil's mind, and must connect with it, or it will not take root. Fit your work to the pupil; make it of interest to him; have him do it himself, it is only what he himself does that has any value for him. The whole pupil must be enlisted in every recitation—intellect, sensibilities, and will, all the powers at the same time. The primary teacher's work is the most important of all; it is also the most trying and laborious. Advanced pupils are supposed to have learned to a considerable extent to help themselves and to control and govern themselves, but not so little children, they need the teacher's attention at every step; they are helpless. She must look into their little minds and hearts, and aid them in their development as the gardener does his most tender plants in their growth and development. It is a shame upon the age in which we live that primary teachers receive no better pay than they do. The very best work that can be done should be found in the primary room and should receive the best pay. Sometimes we find dull pupils, but have you ever found them anywhere but in connection with dull teachers? I have lately seen teaching that defied intelligence to such an extent as to make the brightest dull.

A musical drill, and remarks by the County Supt. on the subject of regular attendance at the Institutes brought the morning session to a close. The Session of Tuesday afternoon was opened with music after which Miss McClosky took up the subject of "Busy Work," or in other words, work calculated to keep the pupils engaged. Such as clay moulding, paper cutting, mounting, building color charts &c., and its importance in a well regulated school. At 3 o'clock P. M. Prof. E. K. Richardson addressed the Institute on the subject of "Some things to Teach." Among which was mentioned temperance, proper respect for public officers, the support of the administration, the principles of good citizenship and a proper respect for the Sabbath. After this, Dr. Tomkins spoke on Mental Processes, which was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to hear it. Prof. Sprenkle gave a short talk on music, and after a few remarks by Supt. Johnston on the necessity of refraining from whispering during the lectures in the evening, the session of the day came to a close. The entertainment of Dr. Byron King in the Opera House Tuesday evening was enjoyed by a large audience and by his excellent impersonations had the audience with him from the beginning to the end.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The session opened by singing and devotional exercises conducted by Rev. G. E. Weeks pastor of the Baptist church of this place. Dr. Tompkins took up the subject of "Principles underlying the Expression of Language." He said among other things, "The distinction between words, sentences and discourse is not one of length. The word hush may be a word, a sentence or a discourse."

A child is a natural orator. He is a user of discourse.

In all language work aside from words and sentences the child must live in the effect which that language produces. Self forgetfulness is the law of all effective discourse. Distinguish between mere correctness and effectiveness. Have the pupil think not of what he is doing but of the thing to be done. Argue a question for the truth involved. A man is an orator not because he has a larynx, but because he has a soul. "Never permit a man to speak unless he has something to say." There is a difference between elocution and yellow-cution." Unless a man can forget himself in the thing he is doing—he can't do it at all. The little child who comes to school is already an elocutionist; he is learned in the art of expression. It is seldom an elocutionist when he leaves school. Emphasis and inflexion must come to him unconsciously of the effort to produce them.

You can't work a boy's jaw up and down so that he will emphasize correctly. The boy must love himself in the thing he wants to say or do.

After an exercise in vocal music, Prof. Noetling spoke on "Some Points in Teaching." He asked the teachers what the first thing should be when a class appears for a recitation. Several of the teachers replied, "Attention." Yes, without attention there is nothing learned. The minds of the pupils must be upon the subject under consideration. Pupils who come to class gossiping about matters foreign to their work, are not fit to begin a recitation. I have known teachers who, at every recitation, were obliged to call their classes to order before they could begin work. Such teachers seem to be unaware that self-control and self government are two important elements of an education to be acquired in class.

The teachers were asked how many of them had daily reviews at the beginning of every recitation. A number of them raised their hands. A daily review is a necessity to thoroughness of work. It enables the teacher to ascertain to what extent his previous instruction has been comprehended, and rooted in the pupils' minds. The review enables the teacher, too, to connect his instructions, from day to day, in the minds of his pupils. Reviews should be spirited, not slow and sleepy, and should be given from the pupils' imagination and not from a memorized outline. An outline demands two mental activities, one of them a useless effort. Much careless work continues to be done in our schools and that necessitates a repetition of the same thing from year to year. Penmanship, not a difficult subject to teach when taken at the proper time, continues to be taught as poorly as ever. Pupils graduate from high schools unable to write with anything but scrawls. Who is to blame for this state of things? Certainly not the pupils. Is the English language taught much better than penmanship? If it is possible for anything to be taught worse, it is English. The cause is not want of time, but want of knowledge how to do it. There is no other branch that enables teachers so easily to waste their pupils' time as this. The ability to write or use the English language correctly and fluently, can be acquired in no other way than by practice with intelligent criticism. The written method is the only one that is sure to accomplish the end. Taking the sentences, paragraphs, and essays of others and analyzing them, will never train one to construct his own. The only way to learn to make anything is by practice in making. But how are teachers who themselves cannot write good English to teach others to do it? History and geography continue to be cram subjects. A class with their books closed, with a teacher before them with his open, asking questions from it, reminds one of the old time schools, when teachers could do no better than take such advantage of their pupils.

The matter that our young people read, that constitutes their mental food, is of the most enervating character, and is the chief cause of their inability to do any thinking of their own. Rehashing and repeating the thoughts of others makes flippant gossips, nothing more.

10:45 After a recess of ten minutes and a musical exercise, the Institute listened to a talk upon the introduction of music into the public school, and the importance of teaching "Music" by the musical instructor.

11 a m. Miss McClosky, subject, "The Story as a means of Mental and Moral Growth." Select stories adapted to the pupils needs. The point of the story should have a direct bearing upon the life of the pupil. The ability to tell a story well is a great part of the teacher's equipment. Five things are necessary to enable a teacher to do this: First, culture; second, imagination; third, fancy; fourth, common sense; fifth, poetic fire. We should first be sure of the value of a story and then, after selecting it, be careful in telling it. I hope that you will give the pupils that which is best for them as God has given you to see the best and that you will regard the pupils as of greater value than all the ballads that have been ever sung or read.

11:45 Prof. Sprenkel conducted an interesting musical exercise, Supt. Johnston issued a call for a meeting of the Auditing Committee and the Institute adjourned.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

2 p. m. The exercises were opened by the customary practice in vocal music President Johnston introduced Supt. B. R. Johnson, of Union County, who spoke on the subject of "Tact." I have always had a desire to meet the teachers of my native county and I am pleased to have that desire granted. Tact is the ready power of appreciating and doing the proper thing in the proper way and at proper time. Our Saviour possessed it and thereby subserved his purpose by preserving his manhood and his dignity. Tact makes us to overcome prejudice. The weak teacher's weapon is scolding and fault-finding. These things destroy hope: hope is the combination of desire and expectation. When you refuse, let your refusal be final. Do not stop the play of childhood and when you curb it, curb it only to direct.

3 p. m. Singing "America," "The Miller of the Dee," etc.

Prof. E. K. Richardson illustrated the school flag salute by a class of bright little boys from the Normal Model School. The silken flag used in this exercise was loaned by Camp 319 P. O. S. of A. The boys acquitted themselves very nicely to their own credit and that of their instructor.

3:15. Mrs. Allen, of Yonkers, N. Y., then spoke on the subject of "Health." Teachers wear out quicker, grow old sooner and become uglier to look upon sooner than any other class of people. If Mrs. Allen had been a member of this Institute for several years as the writer has been and had seen the teachers grow respectively prettier and handsomer year by year, she would greatly modify this observation. Teachers, continued the speaker, should carefully endeavor to preserve their health by the use of proper food and air and exercise. If you are too tired to exercise then stretch yourself out on the bed. Walking is a health preserver. Each teacher should sleep at least eight hours out of twenty-four. Do not worry. The man or woman who forgets himself or herself for children deserves an exalted place in the Kingdom of Heaven. Mrs. Allen asserted that much of the nervousness of children comes from a constant strain upon the back. Teach them to rest their whole weight upon the seat when they sit down, fold their hands and cross their feet.

3:45. A universal exercise was conducted by Prof, Sprenkel, who gave some excellent points on teaching music.

Prof. M. J. Brecht, County Superintendent of Lancaster County, sent a communication asking that the teachers all be invited to contribute towards the memorial to Dr. Burrower, the father of the County Institute system of Pennsylvania. He deserves a monument and should have one. Every teacher in the State should have a share in it.

Dr. Tompkins spoke on "Reading." The familiarity with symbols comes from the interest in the things which are behind the symbols. Advanced reading is skill in the interpretation of literary discourse. The thing to be done determines how it is to be done. Reading deals with the manifold interests of human life. Literature is universal in its application to the human heart. Courtships are not colonial affairs—neither is literature. Pathos has no boundary except the boundaries laid down on the human heart. A reading lesson that has isolated interests in it is not a good lesson. By brilliant extracts from Bryant, Lowell, Tennyson, Burns and others the lecturer clearly illustrated his point. Literature is universal in that it touches the depths of the individual human heart. Let your test of a poem be this: Where does it search the human heart? Locate your Shylock and your Antonio in yourself every day. The forces of avarice and those of love are within every one of us. Put nothing in a reader except that which is universal and searches the human heart. Literature deals with ideal human life Literature reveals myself to myself; it is self revelation. If literature gives you love it is a pure love; it is subjective. Literature is valuable in that it searches, reaches and touches the human heart, revealing to the reader a high ideal which he is compelled to live for awhile until at last he comes to live that ideal forever.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

A masterly oration delivered in a forcible and telling manner, with extraordinary power and vim, by a man who has the courage of his convictions and the backbone to express them; was the record of last night's lecture by Dr. Thomas Dixon on "The Almighty Dollar."

THURSDAY MORNING.

The fourth day's exercises were opened by singing "America" and 151. The devotional exercises, consisting of reading from the Bible and prayer, were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Brandt, of the Reformed Church. Supt. Johnston made a few remarks regarding the attendance cards.

Vice-President Boyd Trescott introduced Mrs Allen, who spoke on the "Physical Characteristics of Pure Temperaments." There are four temperaments: Sanguine, bilious, lymphatic and nervous. Every teacher should know his own temperament before trying to teach children. Hold a meeting of the children's mothers and by consultation with them ascertain the temperaments of your pupils. Mrs. Allen gave the teachers an elaborate outline illustrating her talk but we are obliged to omit it for want of space. Activity is the best antidote for the blues. The fundamental principles of temperament cannot be changed but some of them may be modified. Do not place children of similar temperaments together.

10:15 Music, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

10:20. Dr. Tompkins, subject, "Reading." Literature is soul; it is ideal human life entertained subjectively and lived for a time. The literary man is he who calls the individual object to its universal signification. It shows individual things in its universal application. Lot's wife turned to look upon sin and was salted down; so will every one be who turns to look upon sin. Ideal truth is the truest truth. The ideas embodied in Smith's story of Pocohontas, and De Leon's fountain of immortal youth are universal in their application. In the reading lesson the child must make a mental picture and then make application of the thought in the lesson to himself. Reading is a spiritual experience. Reading is not the jaw process. Lead the pupil to this spiritual experience and he will say the words of the lesson all right. The leading point is that point where the pupil lives the ideal life and knows it to be real and true. We never live on a straight line or a dead level. In Longfellow's "Rainy Day" picture the rainy day and then make its application to human life. Human life has its lower half and its upper half. Pupil must see the unity between a thing and its universal application. A pupil may miss his emphasis and inflection and still be virtuous and happy but he cannot be perfectly happy until he attains to the ideal he has once lived. Literature is the most immediate and directly practical branch in the public school; this can be mathematically demonstrated. I must know the value of the pupils experience in the reading lesson. I must take pleasure in aiding him to make the application of the good in the ideal therein contained to himself and aid him in his eternal striving for the eternal good.

11 a. m. The Institute took a recess of a few minutes after which a musical exercise was conducted by Prof. Sprenkel.

This was followed by a practical talk by Mrs. Allen, in which she enunciated the following rules for walking: First, head erect; second, chest active and leading, arms at side, abdomen withdrawn, knees straight weight on balls of feet, heels on a straight line:

11:15 Supt. Johnston, subject, "Right Beginnings." Do we all work right? Do we start right? Let us be careful to give correct information to pupils in explaining a lesson. Fix the pronunciation of a word first and take nothing for granted in its pronunciation. Of what use is a word unless it can de used? Learn the meaning of a word and how to use that word. Next learn to spell it. Devices many of which can be conjured up by the thoughtful teacher are very helpful in the act of instruction. Govern with the eyes to a certain extent; take in the surroundings at a glance. Blessed is the eye that sees, recognizes, notices and cognizes. The teacher who, to any extent, governs with the eye is a strong teacher. Many a pupil has been wronged and even injured by the failure of the teacher to recognize his needs. If we could only, by the use of tactful, ingenious devices help the pupil to see for himself the beauty contained in the lessons he is learning we would help him for time and eternity.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

2 p. m. After an exercise in singing Prof. E. K. Richardson acting as substitute for Mrs. Allen, explained a diagram on the board relating to the subject of "Temperaments."

2:15. Prof. Johnston, subject, "Punctuation" comes from punctum, meaning a point. The importance of punctuation cannot be over-estimated. He aptly illustrated his point by placing a sentence on the board and showing the different transpositions which could be made by changing the punctuation in the sentence. The United States government once paid $2,000,000 as a penalty for the insertion of an unnecessary comma. The whole sense of a sentence depends upon its punctuation. Study Corinthians Chapter 1, if you would learn the use of the colon and the semi-colon.

2:45. Dr. Tompkins, subject, "School Management." In reply to a question the learned Doctor said a district which paid its teachers only $20 per month needed a religious revival in the worst kind of way and that this low figure was an evidence that such a district does not care for education and does not deserve it. In school management the consideration is unity. In order to secure this the seating of the pupil, the heating, lighting and ventilating of the room are all necessary. Use the single desk in preference to the double ones. Thinking is a silent process, not a noisy one. I prefer a quiet school to a noisy one. Whenever you enter a place of public assembly, as a church or a school you make a silent contract to preserve the unity of that assembly by doing as the members do. You should not assign a lesson or hear the lesson before he has prepared the lesson. Do not start in on a recitation until everything is ready. There is no end to a lesson if it is properly investigated. Teach a child to probe a subjeot to the bottom. So put the direction that every body shall do the same thing at the same time. Train the pupil to self-activity.

In the law of questioning, so ask the question that everybody will think the answer. Do not call on the pupil, by name, to answer the question until you have stated it.

3:45 p. m. Music.

3:50. Supt. J. George Becht, of Lycoming county, subject: "The spirit of the Teacher." Is teaching a learned profession? The lawyer, the minister and the physician must each thoroughly understand the principles underlying the practice of their respective professions. The teachers' profession must become a learned one by having for its members men and women who have mastered the principles that underlay teaching. The spirit of the teacher should manifest itself in so much of dignity as will inspire respect. The teacher should exercise a spirit of kindness which will make him sympathetic. Punishment should have a direct bearing upon the offense and should relate to the offense. Be self-controlled, sympathetic, kind and true. If the right spirit animates the teacher he will invariably uplift the community and elevate his profession.

Dr. Tompkins, subject, "Punishments." I suspect anything that is labeled as a system. Use each and all methods that are necessary in the accomplishment of the object of instruction. The best school would be that in which punishments would be absolutely impossible. In truancy or anything else it is the consent of the mind which breaks the unity which should exist between the teacher and pupil. Whatever tends to destroy this unity is wrong. It is the pupil's state of mind in committing the deed which determines the punishment. If a child's mind cannot be reached by a higher appeal he must be reached through the integument. If a young lady whispers in school let her stop her work until she can explain why a lady should not whisper in school; when the demonstration is clear the way is clear also. As soon as the teacher sets himself up as against the pupils he will have a war on his hands. Lead the pupils to see that offenses in school are not against himself but against justice. It is the province of the teacher to fix up an offense in such a way that the pupil will do the fretting, not the teacher. This system always causes the child to think of his relation to the institution. Rational self-control is the end of school work. It takes skillful fingers to apply correct theory. There must be room for the personal energy and tact of the teacher. There are cases where nothing can succeed; there is a limit to teacher's responsibility in this matter. There were cases too obstinate for even the Great Teacher of Mankind to teach.

THURSDAY EVENING.

A crowded house greeted the appearance before the footlights of the Arion Ladies' Quartette, who, assisted by Mr. Edmund V. Cooke in the role of a humorist and impersonator, en-

TRUSTING WOMEN.

THEIR CONFIDENCE OFTEN LEADS TO SUFFERING.

An Ohio Woman's Experience, as Here Related, is Interesting to Every American Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

It is a very sad fact that the more a woman trusts to the skill of her physician in treating her female complaints, the longer she is apt to suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham fully realized this fact when she commenced that exhaustive study that has enabled the women of the world to help themselves. She discovered the source of female complaints, and produced the Vegetable Compound, which is their absolute cure.

When such testimony as the following is given, the woman who thinks should act quickly, and no longer permit herself to trust to incompetent doctors. The Vegetable Compound is sold by all druggists, and every woman should have it.

"The doctors had told me that unless I went to the hospital and had an operation performed I could not live. I had falling, enlargement, and ulceration of the womb.

"I was in constant misery all the time; my back ached; I was always tired. It was impossible for me to walk far or stand long at a time. I was surely a wreck. I decided that I would give your Compound and Sanative Wash a trial.

"I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used two packages of Sanative Wash, and I am now almost well. I am stouter and healthier than I have ever been in my life. My friends and neighbors and the doctors are surprised at my rapid improvement. I have told them all what I have been taking." — MRS. ANNETTA BICKMEIER, Bellaire, Belmont Co., O.

THE COLUMBIAN,
Bloomsburg, Pa.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

Every Democrat should come out to vote this year. His presence at the polls will help to elect the whole Democratic ticket.

Hon. Benjamin F. Meyers is known to be an honest and a zealous public official. Vote for him this year and end fraud in the State Treasury.

Are you getting tired of having public office corrupted for the sake of political barnacles? If you are, vote the straight Democratic ticket next Tuesday.

The hope of real reform in Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Pittsburg lies in the success of the Democratic party this year; vote the ticket and assert your love of honest government.

The Republican papers say that the Democrats in Pennsylvania are conducting a "still hunt." The Democrats have been anything but still. It is the Republican party that is keeping very still on the condition of State affairs.

Every vote for the Democratic ticket this year will be so much the greater aid toward actual reform in Pennsylvania's present corrupt and expensive government. Are you tired of corruption? Then vote the Democratic ticket.

A vote for the Democratic candidates for Superior Judges means that a superfluous and unnecessary Court, originated by the Republicans in order to get $70,000 of the people's money every year, will be abolished. The Republicans do not care for keeping up any office that is not in their own grasp.

Next Tuesday is election day and nothing done by Senator Andrews' Legislative Committee to investigate corruption in Philadelphia. Voters who believe in honest government should remember this on election day and show Mr. Quay that his idea of reform is not the kind the people want.

United States Senator Quay is actively pushing his boom for Republican National Chairman. He lets no chance go by to keep the name of Matthew Stanly Quay before the people, aud, as usual, is ready to sacrifice all others to attain this end. His champion is the Philadelphia Inquirer, and while that paper does not publish one editorial in favor of the Republican State ticket it gives columns to Quay and his schemes. His latest scheme was promulgated from Washington in the form of an interview, in which he explodes a plan to raise $40,000,000 by increasing the import duties on woolen and other goods. He says he will do great things in the way of harbor improvements, etc., if the tariff is increased. He is another instance of "the people b——d," for he wants to increase the duties on woolens and increase the cost of goods to our people. It is a great play for increased popularity, but it will hardly work, as the people are satisfied to pay low prices for good clothing, and will not willingly return to high prices and low wages.

In his speech in Philadelphia last Saturday, our candidate for State Treasurer, Hon, B. F. Meyers, said:

"The rapid return of the country to prosperous conditions promises sufficient revenues. At any rate an election at which only a State Treasurer and seven Judges of a superfluous Court are to be chosen, can hardly be expected to determine the question whether or not a revision of the tariff should be had. True it is that the changes are being rung on this question by our political adversaries. Even the transcendent splendor of Senator Quay's civil service reform program is not permitted to dazzle the eyes of the Republicn saints, so as to blind them to the great importance of saving McKinleyism by the election of a machine-made candidate for State Treasurer. Nay, the unspeakable virtues of the Senate Lexow Committee, whose grand and glorious purpose seems to be to get such imformation for the use of the next Legislature as will have the effect of deterring that body from changing the name of this city to Martinsburg, is postponed until after election, lest, indeed, the calcium light which is to flash upon the precincts of the City of Brotherly Love might so affect the optics of the regulation Republican voter that he would get his cross-mark in the wrong column for State Treasurer on the Australian ballot."

Next year is the time to talk about the President and the tariff and money questions. To day is the time to consider the way the State has been robbed by the Republican party. Republicans are trying to hide their frauds behind the tariff question, but the corruption of State officials has come to the surface, and will stay there without the aid of an alleged "Lexow" investigating committee.

MRS. DAVID ACHENBACH DEAD.

Mrs. David Achenbach, who resided near Orangeville, died at her residence last Thursday aged eighty-two years, seven months and twenty-four days. The funeral was held at the Union Church at Orangeville Tuesday at 11 o'clock She left to survive her children as follows: A. C. Hagenbuch of Orangeville, Oscar Hagenbuch of Williamsport, Sophia intermarried with H. L. Murray of Williamsport, Rebecca J., inter-married with M. M. Megargell of Orangeville, Anna and William also residing at the above named placed. Harriet E., Calvin, and John J., also children of said deceased died several years ago. Her death was the result of paralysis.

The children desire in this public manner desire to return thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted them during her illness.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.

A few days since a man came to the boarding house of Mrs. Blosser on East Street, and engaged boarding. He remained there several days waiting, as he said, for his trunk to come from Danville. He left the house ostensibly for the purpose of looking up a drayman, but not returning in due time, investigation proved that he had left the town, not only beating her out of her board bill, but stealing several articles of jewelry, as well as a pair of trousers belonging to one of her boarders.

TO BE ENLARGED.

In accordance with the recommendations of several Grand Juries, the vault in the Register and Recorder's office is being enlarged. In order to do this, it was necessary to remove the water closets in the rear of the Court House. They will accordingly be moved to the cellar under the Commissioners office. The cellar wall have been cemented, and a cement floor laid, so as to be able to thoroughly flush and cleanse it daily. They will be supplied with the very latest appliances which are conducive to health.

GOT THE WRONG MAN.

Elljah Shutt, of this place, received a circular letter a few days since from M. S. Quay, chairman of the Republican State Committee, urging upon him the necessity of not only voting himself, but getting out the entire Republican vote at the coming election. He is indignant over the receipt of it, and says they have not enough money to purchase his vote, Were they to come this way Elijah says he has something he would like to tell them. Evidently they have got hold of the wrong man.

LETTER FROM J. HOWARD KLINS.

WESTON, Wood County, Ohio.
October 26th, 1895

Dear Sir:

Since I left old Columbia County I see there are a great many of the older people have dropped off.

We have had several Columbia County people to visit us this summer Miss Edith Moyer and Miss Annie Snyder of your town and J. W. Connor of Orangeville. Well, we have one of the dryest years that Wood County has ever known but we are not burnt up nor blown away. Our crops are good but prices low, hay is the shortest crop.

Corn is selling for 28 cents per hundred on the ear that makes about 19½ cents per bushel, oats 20, wheat 60, Oil is the best for them that have it.

Politics are taking the lead of anything else just now.

Our general health is as good as common. Yours &c,

J. HOWARD KLINE.

WILKES-BARRE, PA.,
October 30, 1895.

Now that we have started our Weekly Chats, we feel free to ask: Were you pleased with the item of dress goods we sent you last week? Of course you were. The quality was right and the price we know was less than you paid for the same grade of goods before. You'll find everything you order from us fully up to that standard. We have been in business a long time and want to give you better Dry Goods, better service, better prices, in fact the best of everything is at your command here. By doing things a little better than our neighbors we have established a business larger than all the rest. This is to your advantage, for it is only by buying in great quantities we are able to control the markets and secure the extra discounts allowed to the big dealers.

The sharp air between night and morning warns you to prepare in time for the cold season. Now and then we may still have a pet day, but you shouldn't be caught napping. We have selected for you this week some of the things we know you ought to have; send for them now. You'll thank us for the suggestion later.

California Blankets with delicate pink blue and old gold borders, soft and fleecy as down, the kind you like to cuddle to on snappy nights. These blankets are of extra weight and should sell at $5.00 the pair. We will send you a sample pair for $3.75.

Misses' All Wool Ribbed Hose, all sizes, with fine Merino heels and toes; they are extra length and weight and are just the stocking for cold weather wear, you will be surprised when you learn the price. This week they will be offered at the pair 19c.

Ladies' Extra Weight Wool Vests and Drawers. Some call them all wool. We don't; there is just enough cotton to prevent shrinking; they are natural grey, silk bound, with woven rib cuff and skirts. If ordered this week you will save at least 25 cents on the suits. They are genuine bargains at our price—each garment 46c.

Ladies' Heavy Fleece Lined Vests and Drawers, extra gusset in drawers, draw strings in back and additional side buttons. These garments are especially recommended to those who cannot wear wool as an undergarment. We have lessened the price for this week to per garment 46c.

Children's Fine Fleeced Lined Vests and Pants, either white or grey, with necks crocheted and shaped Vests, all sizes, if ordered this week the price will be per garment 29c.

We are sole agents for the Armorside Corset, the only corset that never breaks down in the sides, it is extra boned, which gives it the Venus back shape. Unlike most corsets the Armorside clings close to the body, giving an easy, graceful carriage and at the same time is absolutely comfortable, no matter whether stooping, standing or sitting. We will send your size in white, drab or blue for $1.00.

We have built up a great Boy's Clothing business by selling a suit we call our Special at $1.98. We have pleased 400 boys with these suits this season and can please your boy. It's an all wool Grey Cassimere suit, double breasted, square cut, stylish, durable. Try one for sample wear; the cost is a trifle, but it will make for us other customers, $1.98.

With a perfected system in our Mail Order Department you are represented by a clerk who gives her undivided attention to filling your order. Try it to-day. We are sure the items named above are needful and will give you good service tertained the audience for more than two hours. With but one exception all the numbers were double and everyone got the worth of his money with enough interest thrown in to counterbalance any future shrinkage in the value of silver.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

FRIDAY MORNING.

9:00 after music by the teachers the devotional exercises of the Institute were conducted by Rev. Mr. B. C. Conner of the Methodist church after which Mr. Enterline spoke of several school journals useful to teachers.

9:15 Supt. B. R. Johnson, subject: "The Use of Words." We all have a thought vocabulary as well as a word vocabulary. It is often impossible to determine the correct use of a word from its meaning. We must be students; we must know more than the thing we teach. Let the pupil find the word used properly in a sentence. There should be an unabridged dictionary in every school. The origin of words is a wonderful study. Take the word "absurd," it comes from "ab"—from and "surdus"—deaf; thus being such a word as would come from a deaf person. Teachers should discourage the use of slang. Slang is low, vile, coarse language. Its unlimited use indicates poverty of language, coarse associates and a bad heart. For every beautiful thought we have, somewhere, a beautiful word. The highest aim of life is to seek, to see and know God here so that we may glorify Him forever.

Teachers we are too unsympathetic. We should lend the kindly word, the loving act and the warm pressure of the hand. I remember the warm personal friendship, the cheering and cheerful presence of Ex-Superintendent Snyder. I hope that abundance and grace may strengthen and sustain you through life.

9:45 Dr. J. P. Welsh of the Normal, subject, "Points on Life and Character." Dr. Henry A. March is a great American teacher: one of the greatest. He is famous in this country and abroad. One of the elements of his character was his strong love. Though his criticisms were severe there was always in them an element of kindness: this element must grow out of your love for your work and for the child. A favorite and effective device of Dr. March was the Socratic method of questioning; leading the child right up to the point where the truth is and then letting him see it for himself. Modesty is one of the characteristics of the teacher. New troops arrive each year to keep the teacher always young and the sum of the years brings with it an unearned increment. We look to the future. We like to help our schools. The school grows: the teacher grows with it. One is always happy in an earnest pursuit of something which will be useful to mankind.

You are engaged in the greatest work the world is doing. Do you realize that you teach, mould, train and develop human souls. Have you thought that the simple hearing of your recitations and the drawing your salaries is not doing your duty. Be noble, brave, selfsacrificing and progressive teachers.

Supt. Johnston announced that the State Teachers' Association will meet in Bloomsburg next July. He and Dr. Welsh both advocated and urged a large attendance upon its sessions by teachers of this county.

Rev. Mr. Houtz spoke a kind word for a school paper entitled "Our Children."

Report of Committee on Resolutions:

The committee on Resolutions, representing the sentiment of the teachers of Columbia County:

Resolved: That we deplore that spirit which prevades the directors in some parts of the county, where the salaries were decreased when they should have been increased.

Resolved: That the County Superintendent, directors and teachers should endeavor to have Columbia county rank with the best in the State in salary and school work.

Resolved: That we commend the earnest and unceasing labors of our efficient County Superintendent, in elevating the degree of efficiency attained by our public schools, and in contributing so much time and effort to make this session of the Teachers' Institute successful.

Resolved: That the sense of the Institute is that directors should receive actual expenses for attending County Institute on directors' day.

Resolved: That a vote of thanks be tendered the newspapers of this county for publishing the proceedings of the Teachers' Institute, and in particular to the Bloomsburg Daily for an accurate and daily report.

To the people of Bloomsburg for their warm reception and genial and generous hospitality to us while strangers within their gates.

To the lecturers and instructors for effectiveness and practical benefit obfrom their instruction and to the officers of the Institute for the faithful discharge of their respective duties.

And also to the faculty of the Bloomsburg State Normal School for the kind invitation to visit her spacious halls during Institute week.

B. F. KELLEY,
S. B. LUTZ,
LAURA YOCUM,
MARIE BROCKWAY,
IDA WALTER, } Com.

The Auditing Committee reported a balance of $115 in favor of the Institute.

11 a. m. After music by the Institute Dr. Tompkins spoke on the "Philosophy of Teaching." Discontent with the present conditions is the law of the universe. The ideal plants itself upon the real and tends to destroy it. The inner impulse in the soul must rend the outer husk. The force that makes the change exists in the thing that changes.

"The real in the acorn is the oak that is to be.

The idea of human life is conscious duality"

A rational being, conscious of himself, is conscious of the fact that there are two of him. Make the pupil conscious of the limitation between what he is and what he ought to be. Let him realize that there is a better ideal beyond him to which he has not attained. Reveal through all your teaching, the pupil's true self to him. Let his ideals stimulate him. Holiness is not the absence of sin; it is the victory over sin. "Where sin did abound, grace did much more abound." The whole work of education gathers itself up in strength to overcome. The teacher should so labor that the pupil should have life and should have it more abundantly."

County Superintendent W. C. Johnston said: "I desire to thank the teachers for your good attendance and your good attention. During the past five years or more, I am glad to say that I have found so many of you true to yourselves and true to your positions, faithful in the discharge of your duties in your schools and at the County Institutes, I sincerely thank you for it.

I desire also to thank the good people of Bloomsburg and all others who have helped to make the Institute a success.

Of the two teachers absent Mr. Long of Sugarloaf township, came into the Institute on Friday and stated that he was confined in the Philadelphia Hospital for the week on account of ill health.

The benediction was pronounced by Supt. Johnson, of Union county.

Treatment of Eczema and Salt Rheum.

These two complaints are so tenacious that the readers of the COLUMBIAN should know of the success obtained by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Where all treatments have failed, it has made a complete cure.

Perhaps no more horrible case of Salt Rheum was ever reported than that of Wilbur L. Hale, quartermaster, Pratt Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y. Several physicians utterly failed to render him any relief; finally one of the physicians suggested that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy be tried and steady improvement followed its use, and a permanent cure resulted.

It is used with similiar success in cases of scrofula, nervousness, kidney and liver complaints, and in all diseases brought about by bad blood and shattered nerves. 2t

The State Board of Health is sending out anti-toxine, the new cure for diphtheria which is attracting considerable attention from physicians. The medicine will be sent to any doctor who may desire the same.

It Costs Little and Does Much.

Remark when you attend a play or concert how many people disturb the performance by coughing. One man begins and the cough seems to be contagious. The interruption is a great nuisance, and there is no need of it, for anyone may cure a cough with the Pineola Balsam, which costs twenty five cents. It soothes the inflammation in the throat and loosens the mucus which clogs the air passages. A few doses of Ely's Pineola Balsam stop a cough and heal a sore throat.

Fire at Muncy.

The plant of the Muncy Black Filler company, located along the Reading railroad, at Muncy, was totally destroyed by fire, together with its contents, at 2 o'clock Monday morning.

The origin of the fire is unaccountable, but it is supposed that the structure caught from sparks from a passing train.

The building contained considerable machinery, and a large stock of product of the concern, and the loss is estimated at $15,000, about half of which is covered by insurance.

The plant was owned by E. W. Crawford & Sons, and it will probably be rebuilt. Five or six hands were employed.

TESTING A POINT IN LAW.

Railroad Men Discharged Seek to Recover Relief Fund Money.

A somewhat novel case has arisen over the discharge of a railway conductor on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg. This man, with two other conductors, was summarily dismissed upon reports of "spotters." In addition to asking for the refunding of his relief money, this conductor will sue the company for his interest in a car accidently damaged some years ago and for which he paid the company $10 as his share of the assessment for damages. He considers that his interest in the total earnings of the car since that time has reached quite a neat sum. The claim for the sum invested in the employes' relief fund is said to be a new point in law, that looks very plausible, although it has never been tried before. The attorneys claim that a man who invests his money in the relief fund has or ought to have the same rights that a man holding a policy in any other insurance company is possessed of, and that the law will not not justify an insurance company discharging a bonafide policy holder from the rights and privileges as defined in the contract attached to his policy, neither will it permit the railroad company to retain the money paid in by a member of the relief after he has been cut out from the right to receive benefits.

When a person is losing flesh and wasting away there is cause for alarm. Nothing so worries a physician. Consumptives would never die if they could regain their usual weight. In fact there would be no consumption if there were no wasting of the system. The cause of this loss of flesh is a failure to properly digest the food eaten. Nine-tenths of all our diseases date back to some derangement of the stomach.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial will stop this wasting of the body. It acts by causing the food we eat to be digested so as to do good, for undigested food does more harm than good. The Cordial contains food already digested and a digester of foods as well.

Every mother hates to make her children take Castor Oil. Laxol is sweet Castor Oil.

Can't Please Everybody.

The press has made presidents, killed poets, furnished bustles for beauties and punished genius with criticism. It has curtailed the power of kings, converted bankers to paupers and graced pantry shelves. It has made paupers out of college presidents; it has educated the homeless and robbed the philosopher of his reason; it smiles and cries and dies, but it can't be run to suit everybody, and the man will go crazy who tries.

One Way to Do It.

It is coming to be generally believed that the one chance for a meeting between Corbett and Fitzimmons lies in getting them both to enter Chicago politics and take part in a primary election.

A lot of new judgment exemption notes, with attorney's commission, and waiving everything, just printed at this, office. Sold single, or in books of 25 and 50. tf.

Steam Must Go.

The age of steam is closing—if George Westinghouse, Jr., of Pittsburg, is correct in his conclusion. He tells the Dispatch of that city it is perfectly feasible to run the heaviest stationery and locomotive engines by gas derived directly from coal, without the use of steam, and that he proposes to undertake the development of that plan.

The main object contemplated is to apply the power of great gas engines directly to the generation of electricity. The main obstactle to the general use of electricity as a power for all kinds of work for which steam engines are now used, is the enormous loss of power from using the heat of burning coal to generate steam, applying this to driving a steam engine, and the power thus produced in the generation of the electric current.

Mr. Westinghouse asserts that, by obtaining gas from the coal and using it to drive gas engines from six to ten times as much power can be obtained through the steam engine. The saving in the cost of fuel will be enormous, and will make it cheaper to run all railroads by electricity than by steam locomotives.

We are inclined to put much faith in these statements because Mr. Westinghouse is a practical man, not a visionary theorist. His life has been spent in the building of machinery, and he knows what he is talking about. And, if he is correct in his statements, it means that the age of steam will pass, and the electric age begin with the twentieth century.

All Kinds of Winter Promised.

The weather prophets are at work on the weather of the coming winter. It is also to be a very mild winter. It is also to be a very severe winter, much worse than last winter. There are several other kinds of weather promised, but we have no space for any more at this time.

HOW TO CARE FOR SHOES.

Inasmuch, as the shoe bills are an important item in the annual family expenses account, we publish the following directions for their proper care, which, if followed will greatly reduce the same.

Have three small clean cloths, a basin of water, a bottle of cosmoline, vaseline, petroleum jelly—or whatever name you like to call it, it is all the same—and a clean shoe polishing or clothes brush.

The shoes should be wiped as free of mud as possible before drying and should be hung in a warm current of air, say two or three feet above a register or stovepipe, not underneath the kitchen range, where they will be scorched on top and wet underneath.

When they are perfectly dry, wipe the mud stains off with a damp cloth, then polish with the brush, being careful about the stitching and around the sole. It is best to do only a part at a time, say first the vamp, one side, then the other, not forgetting the heel.

Unless your shoes have been badly scuffed and rotted by bad shoe dressing they will almost look like new. Now rub cosmoline over them with a clean cloth and rub it well in. Use it liberally, for too little will only destroy the polish, while plenty of cosmoline improves it. The whole shoe should be carefully done, even among the buttons and buttonholes, and, presto, your shoes are soft, pliable and black and just polished enough to look well, will not stain your underclothes or fingers when putting them on, and a little water will do them no harm.

Try it once and you will never want to do it any other way.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25th, 1895.

President Cleveland found on his return from Atlanta that although the season for the propagation of Cabinet resignations was a little late in opening, it had been working overtime to catch up. He learned for the first time that a disagreement existed between himself and Secretary Olney of such a serious nature that the latter was going to retire from the Cabinet, and that it was on account of that disagreement that Mr Olney did not accompany him to Atlanta. This might have been very distressing to him, if he had not known that it was because he would have to go to Atlanta a little later on with the foreign representatives to take part in the exercises of Diplomatic Day at the exposition, and the pressing nature of some private business in Boston, that prevented Secretary Olney going with him.

The President presided over a Cabinet meeting to-day, but there was nothing said or done which implied in the slightest degree any disagreement over the position of this government in dealing with the dispute between England and Venezuela. From the first the President and every member of the Cabinet have held the same opinion on this matter, and they still do. While not pretending to speak for the President or the members of his cabinet, it can be said that many prominent democrats believe the current stories about disagreements and intended resignations are circulated for the purpose of trying to goad the administration into declaring what it will do in case England should resort to force to carry its point in Venezuela, and that some of the circulators have benefitted at the expense of the English secret fund. Be that as it may, the administration has no idea of showing its hand to England at this stage of the game. Its position has been fully determined upon and will be announced when necessary, and when announced it will be approved by a great majority of our people, if not by all of the President's political opponents.

A very small thing is needed in Washington to start a very big sensation. One of those small things was the order for continuous work on the guns which are being made in the government gun shop, for the new battleship Oregon, now lying at the Mare Island navy yard waiting the completion of her armament. This order was made the foundation for a string of the most outrageous stories as to the administration's hurried preparations for the inevitable war with England and similar rot. The truth was easily obtainable, if it had been wanted. The order for continuous work was issued by the Navy department for no other purpose than to have the guns ready at the stipulated time, in order to prevent the throwing of any blame for delay on the department by the contractor. By working three eight-hour shifts three days work are accomplished on the guns every 24 hours. How very warlike these preparations are may be seen from the size of the working shifts—one foreman, four machinists, one engineer, one fireman, and two laborers to each.

It is, of course, known that President Cleveland is and will be a very busy man until after his message to Congress is completed, but there is one thing that all the democrats hereabouts would like him to take time enough to do. That is to dismiss the negro, Taylor, who is Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia. Taylor claims to have been a democrat before he came to Washington, but his rascalities have been much more marked than his democracy since he secured one of the best local positions in Washington, and this week he attended a negro republican mass-meeting and made a speech in favor of a negro republican being elected as one of the delegates to the National republican convention. Since then every democrat one meets expresses the wish that President Cleveland would kick Taylor out of the office to which he appointed him.

Secretary Carlisle proposes to set a good example by going all the way to Covington, Ky., to register in order that he may be able to cast his vote for the straight democratic ticket in that state.

The stoppage of the coinage of silver has no bearing whatever, upon the silver question. The only silver that has been coined for some time has been worn and mutilated silver. The appropriation for that purpose for the current fiscal year having been exhausted, Secretary Carlisle directed that the mint at New Orleans be closed and the employes furloughed until such time as coinage may be resumed. It is probable that the question of the coinage of the 137,644,000 ounces of silver bullion which the government now has on hand, remaining from the purchases made under the Sherman law, will be referred to Congress. Should Congress order this silver to be coined, the government would make a profit of almost $54,000,000 on it, that being about the difference between its cost and the amount of silver dollars it could be coined into. Ineffectual attempts were made to get the last Congress to authorize this coinage.

While Charles Margerum, an employee of the paper mill at Catawissa, was engaged in filling the wood boilers last week, he was taken with a fit and fell directly over the man hole and directly under the flow of alkali. By the time he was discovered his entire body was covered with the powerful fluid which burned him in a horrible manner. He has since died from the injuries.

THE PLATFORM

The Following is the Platform Adopted by the Williamsport Convention.

First. The Democratic party, in State Convention assembled, hereby renews its allegiance to and declares its faith in the principles of Democracy as formulated by Jefferson and illustrated by Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Cleveland. It congratulates the American people upon the first fruits of the Democratic administration, which inherited from its Republican predecessor a bankrupt Treasury and unwise financial legislation, impaired public credit and widespread disaster, and which, under the sagacious, courageous and patriotic leadership of its great President, Grover Cleveland, led the people out of the slough of despondency to the high ground of substantial and increasing prosperity.

We challenge the fairness of our countrymen and ask that the Democratic party now receive the benefit of that renewed prosperity whose welcome note is heard on every side.

Second. The enactment of the Sherman silver-purchasing act and the McKinley tariff law found, as accurately predicted by Mr. Cleveland, their results in bankrupt railroads, closed factories, ruined farms, abandoned fields, impaired national credit and general disaster. The repeal of such iniquitous legislation and the substitution of more moderate tariff laws have found their immediate results in the resumption of business and the restoration of the national credit.

Third. As vindicating the principles of tariff reform, to which the Democracy is unalterably pledged, we challenge especial attention to the fact that such prosperity and the consequent material increase of wages has been most pronounced in the industries whose existence our opponents claimed were dependent upon high tariff duties. The gloomy prediction that the iron and steel industries of Pennsylvania would be destroyed by a reduced tariff has been contradicted by their present unexampled prosperity.

Fourth. We invite the attention of the wage earners to the fact that the present voluntary increase of wages of those employed in the manufacturing industries, amounting to not less than $250,000,000, was absolutely unknown under the McKinley tariff act. To prevent the reactionary legislation threatened by the Republican party of Pennsylvania in their recent State Convention, which would again depress business by destroying faith in the stability of present conditions, we invite our fellow-countrymen throughout the land, irrespective of party, to so act together as to insure, by the election of a Democratic President in 1896, the maintenance of the present prosperity.

Fifth. We especially reaffirm so much of the platform of the last Democratic National Convention as calls for the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country; but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted by international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the payment of debts. We believe that such parity could not be maintained by the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and we are, therefore, opposed to any legislation looking to that end.

Sixth. We arraign and condemn the present administration, both in the executive and legislative branches of the government, for its refusal to reapportion the State, in accordance with the mandates of the Constitution; for its profligate waste of public money; for its creation of private awards and useless public offices; for its degradation of the public service in factional contests; for its unnecessary increase of official salaries to the detriment of many deserving charities of the State; for its legislation favorable to the interests of corporations and monopolies.

Seventh. We challenge comparison between this State administration, which has been so faithless to its pledges, and the wise, economical and honest administration of Robert E. Pattison, which in the stainless purity of its record silenced partisan malignity and justly merited and received the almost universal approbation of the people of this Commonwealth.

Eighth. We especially invite the sober consideration of the people of this State to the remarkable factional struggle in the Republican party, a struggle which involved no principle or public policy, but simply the supremacy of contending factional leaders. The worst arraignment at our hands of Republican misrule falls short of what representative Republican newspapers and leaders testified of each other. The admitted prostitution of the public service, the invocation of corporate influences, the misuse of Judicial appointments and consequent prostitution of the Judiciary, the corrupt use of money in the purchase of delegates, the attempted terrorism at Harrisburg by men of the most abandoned type, fix the high water mark of political debauchery. It but needed to complete its infamy the transparent hypocrisy which led a convention, thus constituted, to adopt "with laughter" resolutions condemning the very methods by which its delegates had been selected. Such condemnation of "The growing use of money in politics; the corporate control of the Legislature, municipal Councils, political primaries and elections; the enslavement of public officers and employes; favoritism in granting contracts and the granting of exclusive franchises in public necessities," while valuable as evidencing the truth of the accusations of the Democratic party in the last quarter of a century, yet coming from the very source which is responsible for these evils, constitutes the crowning insult to the intelligence of a forbearing and long-suffering people.

The doctors tell us, now-a-days, that disease germs are everywhere; in the air, in the water, in our food, clothes, money; that they get into our bodies, live there, thrive and grow, if they find anything to thrive on.

Consumption is the destruction of lung-tissue by germs where the lung is too weak to conquer them. The remedy is strength—vital force.

Scott's Emulsion, with hypophosphites, means the adjustment of lung strength to overcome germ-life. It is fighting the germ with the odds in our favor. These tiny little drops of fat-food make their way into the system and re-fresh and re-invigorate it. Whether you succeed with it or not depends on how good a start the germs had, and how carefully you can live. The shortest way to health is the patient one. The gain is often slow.

TOWN FATHER'S MEET.

Jefferson and North Streets Ordered Opened —New Bonds to be Issued—Report of the Electric Light Committee.

An adjourned meeting of the Town Council was held at the city hall last Thursday evening, all the members being present. B. F. Batten appeared before the council and stated that the commissioners of the county had reduced his valuation from $1700 to $1300. That prior to the said reduction he had paid his town taxes, and now requested the council to refund him about $3.00, being the difference in the amount of his taxes under the two valuations. The matter was referred to the finance committee. A communication was received from a committe of one hundred of Chicago asking the Town council to recognizance the Cubans in their struggle for liberty. After some discussion of the matter it was laid over until the next regular meeting.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The committee on light, appointed at the last meeting of the council to ascertain what arrangements could be made with the Electric Light company in regard to lighting the town, made the following report:

To the President and Members of the Town Council of Bloomsburg, Pa.:

The undersigned committee on street lighting beg leave to report that we have endeavored to procure one year's contract with the Bloomsburg Electric Light Co. for lighting the streets at a less sum than is paid at present, but that the company declined to make a contract for one year. But they are willing to make a contract for five years to date from this time at $80 per year per lamp, with the provisions that in case it is decided by the courts to be beyond the power of the council to make a contract for so long a time, then the contract to be null and void. We, as a committee, believing that $80 per lamp per year is the lowest price that can be contracted for, recommend that such contract be made. Very respectfully submitted.

Upon motion of Wilson and Knorr the committee was authorized to enter into contract with the said company for one year at $80 per light per year, with the privilege of five years if future councils so desire.

On motion an order was authorized to be issued to W. R. Ringrose for the interest due on his judgment against the town up to the time he sold the same to the First National Bank.

In regard to excavating and filling the Lightstreet road the committee reported that they had received no other bids than the former proposition of John L. Richardson to do the work for twenty cents per cubic yard. On motion the work was awarded to him for the sum of $190.00, upon the condition that before any work is done on said road all abutting property owners sign a release, exonerating the town from any damage by reason of the said work.

James Magee and requested the council to exonerate the spinning plant from the payment of taxes for the term of ten years. Upon motion the exoneration was allowed, commencing with the 1st of June, 1895.

E. B. Tustin asked for a crossing over Columbia avenue at Market street. Referred to the committee on streets and highways. He also presented a petition from citizens owning property on Market street, between Sixth and Port Noble, asking for grade on the west side of said street, and also directing that pavements be laid at once. On motion the town engineer was instructed to give them the grade.

Mr. Cook requested the extension of the sewer on Fourth street, between west and Railroad streets. Referred to the committee on sewers. At the last council meeting, Samuel Neyhard appeared before the council and requested them to give him the grade on West Fourth street so that he could fill his lots, which the town engineer was instructed to do. It appearing to the council that the said grade would work injury to some of the property owners on said street, the above action was reconsidered and the secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Neyhard of its action in the matter. A petition was received from citizens residing on Leonard street, asking the council to establish a grade on said street and direct the laying of pavements, and also that the said street be opened from Ridge alley to Fishingcreek. On motion the same granted, with the same conditions as those imposed on the Lightstreet road, Mr. Lockard voting "No."

On motion North and Jefferson streets were ordered to be opened under restrictions and conditions as prepared by the town solicitor, Mr. Lockard and Mr. Knorr voting "No."

The question of opening Jefferson and North streets brought out considerable discussion. The president wanted the council to vote on the question. Mr. Knorr contended that it was not necessary for the council to do so, as the vote at the last meeting resulted in a tie, and this meeting was held to ascertain if the president's vote would carry the measure. He refused to have it that way, and ordered the vote to proceed. A motion was made by Gorrey and seconded by Wilson that North street be opened, providing all adjoining property owners sign a release of all damages that might accrue by reason of the establishing of the grade of said street. The motion was put and carried by the votes of Gorrey, Wilson, Hartman and Kester. Lockard and Knorr voted no.

On motion of Gorrey and Wilson Jefferson street was ordered opened as previously ordained. The vote on this was the same as on North street.

She secretary presented the following resolutions on the new bond issue:

Resolved, That the funded debt of the Town of Bloomsburg be increased in the sum of nine thousand five hundred dollars, the money to be applied to the payment of the floating debt of the Town and current expenses, and that coupon bonds be issued therefore in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each, bearing interest at the rate of four and one half per centum, per annum, payable semi annualy, and the principal reimbursable as follows:

Aug. 1st, 1896, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1897, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1898, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1899, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1900, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1901, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1902, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1903, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1904, $1000.00; Aug. 1st, 1905, $500.00.

To provide for the payment of the interest and the liquidation of the principal of the securities herein before authorized and directed, there shall be and is hereby assessed and levied annual taxes as follows:

For the year 1896 $1427.50, for 1897 $1382.50, for 1898 $1337.50, for 1899 $1292.50, for 1900 $1247.50, for 1901 $1202.50, for 1902 $1157.50, for 1903 $1112.50, for 1904 $1067.50, and for 1905 $522.50, which said several annual taxes or sums of money hereby levied or assessed shall be annually in the respective years aforesaid by the Town Council rated, apportioned and collected, above all charges and expenses, and the monies arising from the said taxes hereby apportioned and shall be applied annually and as fast as the same accumulate to the redemption at par of the obligations or bonds herein before authorized and directed to be issued and the interest accruing thereon.

The President of Town Council is hereby authorized to make sale of and issue coupon bonds in the form above stated to the amount of nine thousand five hundred dollars, he having first filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Session of the County of Columbia, such statement as is required by the Act of Assembly approved the 20th day of April, 1874, entitled an Act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal issuing thereof; each bond to bear date, the day it shall be issued or disposed of by sale, and to have such interest coupons as may be required, with reference to the time before due.

Upon motion the resolution was unanimously adopted. There being no further business the Council adjourned.

The late Judge Elwell was the first noble grand of Bradford lodge, No. 167 I. O. O. F., of Towanda.

Look at the people you pass on the street. Their faces tell the story of their lives. They tell the story of penury or plenty, of refinement or coarseness, of health or disease.

Three-fourths of these people are not "exactly well." They are not all "sick," perhaps, but many of them are, and few are quite hale and hearty. Consumption has set its stamp of pallor and emaciation on many of them. Dyspepsia has drawn lines of fretfulness and worry about their eyes, and mouths. Impure blood is showing itself in blotches and pimples. One man has "a little trouble" with his kidneys. Some of the women have chronic constipation, and the other ills that constipation brings. The most pitiful of all faces is the consumptive one. Very likely it has been through the other stages and has at previous times shown dyspepsia, sallowness and bad blood. Consumption doesn't come all at once. It is a creeping disease. It comes on gradually under cover of a hundred differing symptoms. It is the most dreadful of all diseases, but it can be cured if you begin in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it. It will cure all the things that lead to consumption. It is not guaranteed to cure consumption of long standing. There is a stage at which consumption is incurable.

If you will send six cts. to cover postage, with this notice, we will send free a large book (160 pages) that tells exactly what Golden Medical Discovery will do —what it has done in hundreds of cases. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE.

The services at the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday morning were unusually interesting and impressive. The necessity for the new church which they have commenced was forcibly illustrated, as there was not even standing room, many being being turned away. Instead of a regular sermon, Rev. Conner read, and commented upon the discipline of the church, and administered the rite of baptism upon a number of children. The impressive portion of the service however, was when thirty-three men and women presented themselves in front of the altar rail and joined the church. Under the faithful administration of Mr. Conner the church is enjoying an era of prosperity rarely enjoyed by any congregation.

Gorton's Famous New Orleans minstrels will soon be with us for one performance. Every season this favorite organization has something new to offer. They have called beautiful scenic effects to the aid of wit and music and one of the most striking features of the performance is the picture disclosed when the curtain goes up on the bower of beauty, showing the company almost imbedded in a display of silk, satin and plush. Ladies can attend this company's performance without the slightest fear of being offended, as it has been Mr. Gorton's strict rule for many years not to allow the least suggestive word, action or gesture. POPULAR PRICES...

Are the irresistible powers that move the modern world, more than the fabled lever of Achimedes. They burden the railway, throng the theatres, and crowd our place with multitudes who know enough to know that they are getting more than value received for their money. Old timers, relics of the fossiliferous age of merchandise, whose sole and only idea of profit is 100 per cent., stand aghast at prices, that seems to them the acme of folly and the knell of trade.

BLANKETS.

We can say, and that truthfully, that we can save you money in buying blankets. We have a large and fine assortment of them. Some all cotton, others part wool and part cotton, others all wool. When we say all wool we mean it; the latter in colored and white. When you examine our all wool blankets, you will say the same as the other man who bought a pair: "It is the best blanket I ever saw for the money. Examined some the other day that cost $1.00 more and were not near as good." Don't you want to save that dollar? One saved is two made.

COATS AND CAPES.

There is one thing peculiar about our coats and wraps that distinguishes them from others you see. It is the fit. No mistaking it, they do fit to perfection. Large or small, same story, "How nice that fits." Tell one of our coats anywhere. A new consignment Monday. Quite a drive in this lot. Coats made of the same material, made just as well, fit guaranteed, sold until now for $7.50. We are now selling for $5.00. If you want to save that $2.50 now is the time to do it. Let us impress it upon you that it is not a poorly made coat, nor the material cheaper. It is practically the same coat.

KNIT GOODS.

We never sold knit goods at any thing like the prices we are offering them to you now. Think of it. Fascinators in black or white, elegant ones, at 30c. Examine them and see if you would make one for twice the money. Then we have ice wool fascinators at 50c., and ice wool shawls at $1.00. you must see these goods to appreciate them.

MITTENS.

A very necessary article for winter. Don't waste your time knitting them when we offer you just as good at 10, 12½, and 25c. the pair.

LADIES' GLOVES.

Our fall and winter stock of gloves is complete. If you are in need of any, you will find just what you want here. Our $1.00 kids are not to be equaled anywhere. If you want a little heavier or better glove, we have it at $1.40. All the latest shades are shown here. Then we have the cashmere gloves at 15, 25 and 50c. the pair.

GLASS AND CHINA.

We have an elegant assortment in these goods. Almost anything you want. Pressed and cut glass. White and decorated china, cream and sugar sets, olive dishes, bon bons, asparagus dishes, assorted decorated cups and saucers. One of our drives—cut glass salt and peppers at 50c. the pair.

GROCERIES.

Aspargus tips, better than the fresh, get nothing but the good part. Sliced and grated pine apple, can't tell it from the fresh. Like soup? We have the Franco American, full line. None equal to them. Fancy and American, full cream, cheese and crackers to suit all.
